TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1863.

Buenos Ayres British Clerks' Provident Association.

The half-yearly general meeting was held on Wednesday evening at the British Library, in accordance with public notice previously given.

Mr. Forrester, the Vice-President, opened the proceedings by addressing a few words to the meeting, regretting the absence of the President (Mr. Wells) from the city, and also that the number of members and visitors present was so small, as the committee had been particularly anxious to secure a good attendance on the occasion of the second anniversary of the society, and to enable non subscribers to judge of the advantages which it offered. He then requested the Secretary to read the following Report of the Committee.

For the sixth time since its foundation it has become the duty of the Buenos Ayres British Clerks' Provident Association to lay before a public meeting of the shareholders a statement of their financial position and of the general progress of the society. This, doubtless, falls short of what its rapid rise led us all to anticipate; but we are still entitled to claim for it a highly satisfactory as, although our figures show a falling off in subscriptions, it is only to be deplored on general grounds, inasmuch as the interests of the remaining shareholders are not thereby affected in the slightest degree.

The following is the balance-sheet to 31st August, 1863 :—

Dr.
Cash account.....		$540
Charges account.....		1,000
Bills receivable.....		239,200
Members' Loan account		69,063
		$299,803
Cr.
Share ledger account..	$299,963
Interest account.....	509
	$299,963

Upon this statement the Committee has to make the following remarks :—

Interest Account—The total amount collected for interest and fines during the half-year is $15,323. Of this sum $12,814 has been allotted as a dividend upon shares issued in the following proportions :—

152 shares, Series A, $63 each.		$9,424
2 " " B, 45 "		90
99 " " C, 28 "		2,772
48 " " D, 11 "		528
		$12,814

The balance 509$ in addition to the 240$ interest on three shares which appear in the Balance Sheet having been collected since the 31st August, is amount of Interest on Bills still outstanding and which consequently belongs to the current half year. The allotment of Interest has been made with due care and is at the rate of 8 per month or 10 94 per annum. The Committee regret that the manner in which the Funds of the Society were invested did not allow them to profit by the temporary high rate of Interest, but would also remark that they have considered it their duty as faithful servants of the association to make the question of profit entirely subordinate to that of security.

Share ledger Account—Represents the total value of all Shares issued up to 31st. ult. with accumulated Interest.

These are classed as follows.

	Present Value.
152 Saree Series A	$1393	211,736
2 " B	1040	2,080
99 " C	696	68,930
48 " D	361	17,326
		$299,454
301 shares

Eight shares were distributed among 4 widows without increase and 122 votes in accordance with rule 19.

Charges account—This small item requires no comment.

Members' Loan Account—The large sum at debit of this account [$69,060] will no doubt surprise many, and has caused some concern to the committee. It arises from members requiring to withdraw funds from the association who have found it inconvenient to wait for the expiration of the proper term as specified in Rule 16, and to whom the committee has not hesitated to advance money at a fair rate of interest, in view of the perfectly secure nature of the transaction. In cases where this has occasioned a loss of temporary, the committee has recommended subscribers to adopt this course in order to circulate as much as possible a useless cancelling of the original shares.

Bills Receivable.—You have before you the letter signed by the debtors vouching for the perfect satisfactory nature of the securities held on account of the Shareholders

The Committee beg to call your attention to the following statement of the progress of the Association compiled from the Reports presented at the General Meetings :

	Subscribers.	Shares.	Total value.
30 Nov. '61	68	312	78,000$
28 Feb. "	88	313	112,680
31 May "	50	288	158,000
31 Aug "	48	293	201,800
28 Feb. '63	52	334	268,050
31 Aug "	41	301	299,454

Since the last date 42 shares belonging to 6 Subscribers of the aggregate value of 24,580$ have been paid off, and 34 shares series D have been issued to 6 applicants.

It will be seen therefore that the number of subscribers decrease, and although as before mentioned the pressure of the times has in no way affected thereby, it continues to be a source of deep regret to the Committee that so very many young men in this city should be unable to avail themselves of this valuable institution. As has been stated on previous occasions it is precisely to the young beginner in Buenos Ayres Society that the benefits of its being their duty to omit no means of diffusing the benefits of this association, that they have resolved to recommend the reduction of shares as in this report in the "Standard" to call the attention of the British Merchants of this city to the subject and to request that upon their next visiting with the younger members of their establishments to induce them to become Subscribers. The purchase of 1 Share series D with a monthly subscription of $50 is probably within the means of the lowest salary and it would give greater satisfaction to the Committee to have it in their power to notify to you the joining of 20 new subscribers each for 1 Share, than if 10 had paid cash purchasing 10 Shares each. It may flatter our pride to write the capital of the Society in high figures but it is surely more gratifying to witness an increase in the number of those deriving benefit therefrom.

It is again the duty of the Commission to record the continued kindness of Messrs. Mulhall, proprietors of the 'Standard,' who are most attentive in publishing gratuitously all our advertisements and reports. Thanks are also due to the Proprietors of the British Library, for affording us the use of these rooms for our meetings.

It devolves upon you to-night to elect a new Committee of Manage ment in the room existing one, in place of the present committee, who now beg to return to you their delegated authority, thanking you for the confidence reposed in them, and trusting that their labours may have merited your approval. It will be necessary to have a limited audit, according to rule 8 here, at least, of the outgoing committee must be re-elected.

In conclusion, the committee beg to congratulate you on the prosperous condition of the society at our second anniversary and cannot but repeat their conviction that our present position is very satisfactory. During the past two years, if our profits have been small, at least we have had no losses, and although our number be somewhat reduced, yet those remaining are young men of business who are not enrolled amongst us, there is every reason to hope that the profits now shown are but an indication of the effect of causing not a few to evince their utilitarity and prudence, by becoming members of the Buenos Ayres British Clerks' Provident Association.

The Report was well received, and the motion of Mr. Mossignol, seconded by Mr. U. Smith, unanimously adopted.

It is meeting then proceeded to elect a new Provident Committee and Auditors with the following result —

President.
Mr. E. Glover,

Committee.
Mr. A. Kerr,
Neale,
Carroll,
A. Bell,
Griggs,
Milroy,

Auditors.
Mr. Monroe,
Chisholm.

Messrs Rossignol, Gaskill, Cooper, and Williamson, were elected to serve as substitutes for the committee, and Messrs Kinch and White as substitutes for the auditors.

The Chairman having congratulated the Members upon the result of the elections suggested discussion upon any topics which might be considered of interest to the association.

Mr. Carroll moved that the marked thanks of the meeting be accorded to Mr. Wells, the retiring President, to whom the association owed its existence, and without whose energy and fostering care it would never have attained its present proportions, which were entirely owing to his ability, patience, and perseverance during two years of office. Mr. Bell having seconded the motion, it was carried by acclamation.

A vote of thanks was also given to the retiring committee for their services during the past year.

Some conversation ensued upon the property of the shares having fallen in value in specie, it having been suggested by a retired member that such a course would induce many to become subscribers. This, however, did not meet with general support.

The business of the evening concluded with a vote of thanks to Mr. Forrester for his able conduct in the chair.

GOVERNMENT SUBVENTION.

The resuscitated animosity of the Tribuna against the Standard has at last found vent in Sunday morning's edition. Unfortunately for the Government clerk who edits that paper, he has selected a rather awkward subject for his attack—subvention, or in plain English, bribery.

As we profess no ambition to rival the Tribuna in personalities, we will refrain from drawing attention to the character and pitiful celebrity of that paper and its editors, but we confess it is a humiliation to appear so conspicuously in a journal which has proved itself deficient in everything save fearlessness of principle. The following is a translation of the attack which we refer to.

"IT IS EXPLAINED.

"We have seen a letter from Montevideo, in which it is positively asserted that the Government of Don Bernardo Berro pays a heavy subvention (or bribe) to the proprietors and editors of the Standard, for defending the Government and its policy. The explanation to all those who read that paper the motive which guides the pen of those who so stupidly combat the Oriental revolution. This is the subvention of the Government, thus fomenting the hopes of the reactionary party.

"For the money the dog dances."

(Tribuna, 13 Sept.)

If we gave the Tribuna people their proper answer, we should tell them that the Montevidean Government subscribes for 6 or 700 copies of the Standard daily, and that the editors of the Standard are at present in a sort of official embryo one-fifth share in each secretary of the interior, and the other Consul General for Ireland, and further more all the state printing is to be done at the Standard office, and our friends are to get custom house and legislative sinecures. But we prefer the truth. The Montevidean Government sends 25 copies of the Standard to its agents abroad each month, and pays the same as every one else for them. The consuls and agents of the Argentine Republic, both in France, England, Ireland, Scotland, the United States, and Germany receive copies of the Standard by each packet, but the Government of which Mr. Varela is the clerk have never thought proper to pay us.

The difference between the 'Tribuna' and 'Standard' is simply this—We oppose Flores, the Chanlos, and all other revolutionists, as impolitic, whilst our flippant colleague supports President Mitre on interest.

Could the public coffers of Buenos Ayres, and the private purses of individuals, speak, probably the subscretary of this impoverished nation would write a book with this brief title moment in a foreign land.

LATEST FROM FLORES.

On Sunday morning we received the news that Medina had defeated Goyo Suarez, and taken 30 or 40 prisoners, and 600 horses. The Guardia Nacional of Payssndu publishes a supplement on the occasion, and we are led to believe that it is a victory of the greatest importance.

The news from Entre Rios is extraordinary. It is stated that Urquiza hastily learned that a body of soldiers had crossed the Corrientes frontier, and invaded Entre Rios, he immediately ordered the 5 regiments to get ready to march, but subsequently discovering that the whole story was false, he countermanded his order. We extract the following from a letter which we have received from a subscriber who resides near Salto in the Banda Oriental.

"On about twenty leagues from Salto, on the coast of the Daymun. This note goes by a cart to Salto this day, and I cannot write you more than it is reported here that one Santana is besieging Salto at present; also that there is some expectation of some disturbance to be made on account of misguided rebellion. The red party are gathering up all they catch now; but Urquiza is not able to pay them for horses, neither do they ask people to go as volunteers—only by force. I am writing this in a great hurry, otherwise I would write you some details concerning this rebellion. However I intend to write you some letters as often as I can. We are completely without government with hardly many old horses left as will serve to take care of the flocks."

HISTORIC TABLE.

The book-keeper of Parque Station was stabbed on Saturday night, but not fatally. He knows the name of the criminal, but we understand it will be kept secret, as he belongs to a highly respectable family. These offences have now become quite aristocratic, and are therefore viewed with indulgence.

The Chief of Police is filling up the Casco Lulls with noxious filth, which exhales a pestilent vapour enough to cause yellow fever. If this be a city improvement, the sooner we dispense with such and put Sor. Casos in some other office the better.

The supplement for French Mail left yesterday evening, per Mensi.

The Kepler leaves the moorings, and closing at the Custom-House 4 a.m., and Capitania 5 p.m. Don't forget to put on Argentine stamp on each letter.

The Bank has not published its monthly report for August. When the officials shall have quite recovered from the effects of the Progreso Ball it is hoped they will make up the books, as we are already in the middle of September.

News from the Camp.

We have received letters from all parts of the campo—north, south, east, and west—and, with the exception of Lobos and that vicinity, the rain has fallen most abundantly everywhere. The lagunas are full, and the grass two or three inches high wherein few weeks ago there was nothing to be seen but dust and the remains of starved animals. In the southern districts sheep farmers have suffered very seriously during the winter, but, we are happy to say, not to the extent rumoured. From Barracas to Lobos Salado there is scarcely a sheep to be seen, and indeed we might extend the limits to Dolores. Sheep-farmers have taken exclusive possession of almost every inch of ground. The flocks in the south, generally speaking, have better runs than in the north, but, strange to say, the sheep are, generally speaking, fatter in the north than in the south. Owing to the drought there have been no sales of sheep in the south, but the north-ern sheep-farmers have realized excellent prices. One of our subscribers writes us that he has sold a troop of 900 dollars, which is probably the highest price ever known to have been paid by a butcher. Along the banks of the Parana, in the parishes Quilmes, Barrandos, San Pedro, and Obligado, foreigners are settling down very fast, and purchasing at high prices, magnificent estancias.

Hitherto there has been an objection to land so near the river, owing to their great height and consequent dryness, but now since aljalfa has been so generally sown by shopherds, there is less risk, and owing to the proximity of the river, there is greater convenience for shipping wool to in rior. We hear great accounts about an estancia, called "La estrella del Norte," belonging to Mr Leslie, the parish of the Moun Bank. The proprietor is sparing no expense in building handsome brick puesos, and fencing in, in small parcels, fields for the growing of alfalfa. This estancia, which extends over a whole side of country, is, we are told, a subscription, one of the most magnificent estates in the province, and has been purchased by the Irish proprietor remarkably cheap. Some immense tracts of land have also been purchased by foreigners in the Partido of Rojas; the land has been sold at the rate of 500,000 dols. per league. Owner to town some more large tracts of land have also been purchased by some of our subscribers, but, as a general rule, these small lots of 4 leagues fetch higher prices than large estancias. In San Antonio de Areco, a very beautiful piece of land, close to the Arroyo of Gato, has been recently bought by an Irishman at a very high rate. Landed property is however, increasing in price, owing to the great poverty of the present owners; and it is a mistake to think that a league of land is worth a million of dollars.

Towards the Capilla del Senor, the camps are in good condition, and the sheep doing admirably. A well-known sheep-farmer informs us that he never sold his sheep, and is about to sojourn a few years in his native land.

Schiebt-Navigation Duce.

Antwerp, July 20, 1863.

Mr. Charles Wm. Bunn, Buenos Ayres.

Sir—I have the satisfaction of announcing that the long pending negotiations between the Governments of Belgium and Holland, for the abolition of the Navigation dues levied since 1839, on vessels navigating up and down the Scheldt have now been brought to a successful conclusion, and some six months after the ratification.

As these dues—which amount to 2a. 8d. sterling per ton, have always been disbursed by Belgium, no direct advantage will accrue to the shipping visiting this port from their abolition, but an important reduction in our port charges will simultaneously be introduced, by the Government of this country having decided on the following alterations in the existing rates.

1st. The abolition of the Tonnage Duty of fls. 0.20 or 1s 8d per ton.

2d. The reduction of the river and sea pilotage. Say .01 20 per cent for all steamers, 20 per cent for all sailing vessels; and 25 per cent for same, when employing steam tugs.

And 3d. a reduction of 12 to 15 per cent on the present dock and other local dues.

The effect of the application of these changes in the port charges and pilotage hitherto paid on vessels of 500 tons registered, drawing 16 feet, when loaded, and amounting to about frs. 2800 or £112 stg., will be to reduce them to about frs 1500 or £60 stg. or 2s 4d per ton.

As the same vessel entering any of the neighbouring Continental ports is subject to the following charges,

	Say in	frs.	£	per ton
Havre	=	4200	172	or 7s 0d
Rotterdam	=	2200	88	or 3s 8d
Amsterdam	=	3000	120	or 5s 0d
Hamburg	=	3000	120	or 4s 10d

All exclusive of lighterage of the cargo, when required—and which is never necessary in this port—it will be seen at a glance how much more liberal and favorable than Antwerp, hitherto considered an expensive port, will become the most favourable for all shipping frequenting it, as compared with other ports with which it competes.

AMERICAN TRADE.

New York, July 24, 1863.

The transactions in general merchandize the past month have been much circumscribed by the decline in gold, which has been rapid, and so great, that the sales effected on this account will cause ruinous losses on invoices which had already been contracted for. A general decline in prices seems inevitable, and there is much difficulty on placing merchandize unless at much lower figures.

A severe riot commenced in our city on the 13th inst., continuing for several days; much property was destroyed by fire, and a number of lives lost. It is confidently supposed to have been inaugurated by rebel sympathizers using the laboring population, loosely ready for this purpose, giving as an excuse, their objection to the conscription, which had been ordered by the President in accordance with the law passed at the last session of Congress. Business was suspended for a week, but all is again quiet.

Brilliant successes have attended the operations of General Grant, the capture of Vicksburg has surrendered to General Grant, and a portion of his army under General Sherman, is pursuing the retreating rebels of Johnston, who has been driven from Jackson, the capital of Mississippi, and is now in full retreat before Sherman, four thousand have surrendered to General Banks, thus leaving the Mississipi River free for navigation and cutting rebellion in twain. Gen. Rosecrans has driven the rebels under General Bragg, who is retreating further into the "Gulf States." General Meade with the Army of the Potomac has driven the General Army of Virginia, and has driven him with great loss from Pennsylvania back into Virginia, following still in pursuit of him. The loss of the rebel armies in these encounters, in slain and prisoners, exceed one hundred thousand men, and it is the opinion of our military men that if only great resistance in future, as their resources of men and means must be now at an end, and their now utterly hopeless cause by their own generals severely dispirits them. Our iron-clad fleet is again attacking the defences of Charleston, and there is every thing encouraging to a successful result.

We hope before many months pass to have funds restored to our country, so that there will be abundant for good securities, and business good enough for the investing of prices, which may soon be adjusted, and activity again commence. At the time of subscription to the Government 5-20 year 6 per cent, loan, has been extended to 1st. August, and its popularity has not abated.

Unmasked Mexico's Woe.—In the last day of June there was considerable excitement in the Stock Exchange of mexican wool, and sales were made at from 20 cts. to 33 cts. per lb. nett cash, but since the decline in gold from 140 to 125 and 130 to 115, to 120 to 127, present rates, there has been but little demand; some late a few have been made at 25 cts. per lb. nett, but low, and if gold keeps down prices will rule accordingly. The total sales since my last circular is not far from 2,000,000 lbs. The increase in activity was caused by manufacturers not being able to buy domestic fleece at its market value from the wool growers, and moving to supply their immediate wants from the finer descriptions of foreign wool.

Unmasked Common Entre Rios, Rosario, San Nicolas, and Buenos Ayres Wools.—A sale of 100 bales was made but we are late quoting in gold at 16$ per lb. nett cash, but the figure could not be obtained at present.

Polish Refugees.

To the Editor of the Standard.

I saw with great satisfaction in Sunday's issue of your valuable newspaper of yesterday for facilitating the passage to Poland of four of the valiant sons of that heroic but unhappy country. I should be very glad to put my name among the first of the subscribers, and this for the reasons you will permit me to explain. As a Hungarian, I consider the destinies of my country identical with those of Poland. So it was in the past, when Jan Hunyades proceeded to place a barrier against Mussulman invasion, and at the time of the glorious deeds of Sobiesky; so it is at present, when Hungarian independence is thwarted by Austrian bayonets as Polish freedom is murdered by Cossacks and other Russian barbarians; so shall it be in the future—and, if God permits, in a not very distant future—when Hungary, imitating Poland, will rise again to recover its freedom. And I particularly, having been in the fortunate situation to make my practical military career under the directions of the most famous amongst the Hungarian and Polish generals of 1848—the immortal, liberal, and patriotic Bem—I owe to his memory to contribute to the redemption of his nation with all my wishes and the forces of which an actual married land surveyor can dispose. So as kind as to put my name on the list of subscriptions for sending to the patriotic battle-field the four Polish refugees you speak of, for which I contribute the rate of $200.

Yours very truly,

GENERAL T. J. CZETZ.

Land in Brigado.

To the Editors of the Standard.

Having read in the Standard of the 27th ult. an article entitled "Land in Ha," and as I feel very much interested in the subject, I would be very much obliged to you if you would write me a few lines in reference to the lands in the Partido del Brigado, the right to one league of which costs $30,000 m/n. Now, what I wish to know is the rounds requisite to go to, in procuring it, and the expense, more or less, of so doing, also what term is given to build and stock the land. By so doing you would much oblige,

Yours most respectfully,

A SUBSCRIBER.

[In answer to the above, we may say that the Government gives land to all those who apply for it, and resido on or stock same. Mr. J. G. Kemsley, 140 Calle Parque, will get the necessary papers, &c. from the Government House.]

The Suez Canal Company.

The undersigned of the company is twofold. The first and principal scheme is, of course, the Ship Canal itself, to be cut directly across the Desert, northward from Suez to Port Said, on the Mediterranean. Port Said is nearly at the eastern point of the great Delta of the Nile, that includes the whole of the fertile region of Egypt, the better known part of Alexandria being at the extreme western extremity. The sea-coast of the Mediterranean is the base of the great triangle of which Cairo may be taken as the apex. Port Said itself is situated on the long narrow spit of land that shuts in Lake Menzaleh from the Mediterranean. Through the shallow water of this lake the canal has been formed by dredging. This process has been after completed that for the deepest portion of the whole line proposed, a channel has been deepened through water "covering the whole," it is to say at the southern point of Lake Ballah that the work of cutting through the dry and sandy soil of the Desert commenced. From the southern point of Lake Ballah an excavation, ten miles in length, has, Mr. Hawkshaw states, opened a channel navigable "for the heaviest boats of small draught of water," from the Mediterranean into lake Timsah. On summing up, therefore, what has actually been accomplished, we find that such boats, adapted for very shallow water, can penetrate the Isthmus from north to south for a distance of 60 miles from the sea, and of this distance 30 miles have been obtained by the process of dredging.

Poland.

[WILNA, July 27.—Hanging and shooting are processes apparently too slow for General Mouravieff. Transportation and flogging he looks upon as ludicrously insufficient. Here is his latest edict :—

"Information has been received from various quarters of the country entrusted to my charge that many of the insurgents are voluntarily leaving the rebel bands and presenting themselves to the authorities, imploring mercy. But as those who intest the forests are determined and evil-disposed rebels—distinguished in true bandit fashion by bestial savagery and violent deeds of all kinds—such villians deserve no compassion. I therefore hereby order that all insurgents, as soon as captured especially if belonging to the classes of citizens, nobles, or clergy, shall be deprived over within 24 hours to the criminal tribunals and punished with death, after the military commandant of the district has confirmed the sentence.

NEW GOVERNOR IN CATAMARCA

Cordoba Railway.

The election of Governor in Catamarca came off on the 20th ult. There were 13 candidates, including our friend Moses O'Mill, Gov. Mauvesin, and Deputy Agote; the two last alone went to the poll, Mauvesin being re-elected by 17 votes against 11. About 300 troops were present, and great uneasiness prevailed. Martial law still in force.

Rioja is about to re-elect Bustos, who was expelled by the Chacho Expedition very corps are still in the field as it is denied whether Peñaloza has really fled to Bolivia.

The Central Argentine railway works continue actively. Twelve and a half miles are completed of the seventeen, and 109 "metres" are working away, under order of the Nat. Government, pending further arrangement from Mr. Wheelwright, made for loading materials will be finished by the end of November: the rails are expected by December. The main will be near the Old Cemetery, about half a mile from the passenger wharf.

Important from Entre-Rios.

Passengers arrived from Concepcion inform us that some days ago a force of 1600 cavalry assembled near the town, with the object of crossing the Uruguay, but General Urquiza sent them orders to disband, and only 150 passed over to Banda Oriental. They were all well equipped, and had each two horses. Waldino Urquiza was buying fat horses at 108 silver a head, and had transported over 600.

Discontent is rife, touching the subsidy of $1000 per month, which is insufficient to pay the employees, and nowise comparable to the revenue of Entre Rios, the second province of the Republic. The rumored invasion of Corrientes was nothing but a drunken bravo on the frontier, at some horse-races.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Outrage in Montevideo.

In reply to Mr. Locke.

Mr. Layard said that the information received by the Government confirmed the accounts of the civil war in Montevideo. With respect to the murder of a British merchant (Mr. Smith), it was not committed by the troops of the Monte Video Government but that Government was using its exertions to capture the murderers, and there was reason to believe it would be successful.

HOME NEWS.

From America there is little new. The two two armies are believed to be near each other on the banks of the Potomac. The "New York Herald" publishes a semi-official notice that the 300,000 men now called for are to be used not against the South, but against Great Britain, in consequence of the late decision in the "Alexandra" case.

From India comes news which though it may seem at first only good, betrays a stormy state of the air lurking under sunshine of our prosperity. The Nana, our friend, who has by no man against whom the whole British race is so deeply, so inveterately indignant—none more certain to be pursued with a vengeance—could his execution must be more deadly approved by all men. It ought to take place at Cawnpore, the scene of his crimes. That he is not tortured or mutilated may be a practical lesson of Christian civilisation to our Asiatic subjects. But most fortunate of all is the escape of the wretched murderer has been lurking somewhere in the middle of our dominions for so many years, and has carried off with him a treasure of more lakhs of rupees (each 40 of £) than anyone knows. He was plotting another insurrection, and it is said that Tantia Topee, who was duly returned as hanged four years ago, is still alive, and was acting in communication with the Nana. It is still contingent and hanged the wrong Tantia; and, improbable as this seems, for he was solemnly and deliberately tried, the best informed persons seem to think it is true. Of course there are those who doubt whether, under these circumstances, we have after all got the Nana. Persons not familiar with the customed to see Hindoos or negroes find it difficult to distinguish them. But it is arranged in any real doubt can be cast among men who have lived for years in India as to a man so well known as the Nana, who had mixed with your European society. One of the newspapers says that that there is at this moment in London a gentleman who has a ring which was a present from him before the mutiny.

A floating battery which was building in the Thames for the Russian Government, has been taken away in an unfinished state, a frigate having been sent to bring it. This can mean only that the Czar fears it may be detained if he waits till it is complete. It is reported that war is likely to break out between France and Madagascar. The new Government has refused to fulfil the promises made by he King to the French and the reconciliation of France is withdraw-is countrymen to a distance from the

The Prussian Correspondent of the "Times," commenting in his letter of the 2nd inst., upon the unpopularity of the King of Prussia and his Government among His Majesty's subjects, makes the following remarks :—"As always in times of political dissatisfaction, emigration is running rapidly higher this year. People prefer the chance of serving in America to the certainty of wearing the King's coat here." Will the "Times" and Her Majesty's Government apply the argument to Ireland?

The Emperor of Austria and the King of Prussia having between them broken many engagements made for them by the German papers, have really had a meeting at Gastein. What passed between them we are told, no doubt by men who know it only by conjecture. The Emperor Francis Joseph, who has already done enough to restore prosperity and insure future liberty in his States, has no doubt many lessons to give to King William—if he were disposed to learn. Meanwhile it is said that a meeting of all the Princes of the German Confederation is to take place on the 16th, to make improvements in the terms of the Confederation and in the arrangements for the defence of Germany—a subject always important as long as Russia presses upon it from the East, and France from the West.

The last reports from Japan speak of war as imminent, but not yet commenced. In China the English force in the service of the Emperor has obtained new victories over the rebels.

It is announced that the disputes about the Suez Canal are brought to an end. An English engineer has reported that the plan is practicable, whether it will pay is, of course, a very different question. The sole objection was that the land which the Egyptian Viceroy was to cede to the French Company would in fact have constituted a French dependency between Egypt and Syria. The company now agrees to take money instead of land. Security is also given that the Canal, when completed, shall be neutral and free to all nations. If it can really be made, it is the interest of all the world that it should, and it would be shameful that any national jealousies should be allowed to interfere. As the matter now stands the precautions now taken are no more than reasonable.

On Saturday the Maharanee Chunda Koer, mother of Dhoolep Singh, the deposed Monarch of the Punjaub, died at Abingdon House, Kensington. The London papers have given an enumeration of the murders by which she opened the way for the succession of her son. They are said to have been four, and every various form of violence was adopted in turn. When her husband fell, that her husband left some ten millions sterling behind him, and we know that she used the power she obtained to stir up a war against the English, who had not hitherto been hostile. Queen Victoria was once hers. Attention has been called to this shadow of the Queen's name by a letter in Thursday's papers written by two of her Sikh followers. Dhuleep Singh professes Christianity, and has thus "lost caste." He is said to have also committed so many crimes as to open his way to the throne, was still in her possession of the superstition of her country (a sort of Hindoo Fetishism), and the more always refused to eat with her son, as caste is forfeited by eating with a Christian. It is said that son now claims possession of his mother's body, and desires to bury it. The Sikhs protest.—

The vacancy in the representation of the County of Clare, caused by the death of Mr Calcutt, has been filled by the uncontested election of Sir Colman O'Loghlen, the oldest son of the late eminent Master of the Rolls.

En Mention.

The 'Tribune' people were very busy yesterday posting up posters with the above heading. As a matter of course, where the news of Sedillo's victory was to be found the streets were impassable, and news which otherwise would probably have been eagerly questioned, was at once believed when it was known that the Tribuna contradicted it. The Sub-Secretary, in person, paraded all the corner of the Plaza and posted up "Es Mentira," in the presence of anything but an incredulous multitude.

On 'Change.

Sept. 14.

Ounces opened at half-past eleven at 430 1/2, and ran up as high as 432, but towards the closing hour of the Bolsa they averaged 431, and in that sold 650 ounces was made at 430 1/2. Cash sales, 8691

The time sales were very heavy, also, nearly 6000 ounces were bought for account, and many persons inquired why such heavy purchases were made on such short time. We have been unable to discover the cause positively, but surmise that the news from Cordova had something to do with it.

There was considerable conversation on 'Change respecting the news from the Uruguay and the interior. "An English gentleman, who had just arrived, stated that the report about Medina's victory was correct. It was currently believed that Flores and Berro would make terms in a day or two, but we give the story for what it is worth, not being unfortunately in a position to guarantee it.

Considerable excitement was caused by a rumour that the Chacho had invaded San Juan, at the head of a thousand men: as a matter of course, people asked from what source such startling news had come, whereupon a gentleman, well known on the Bolsa, produced the 'Echo of Cordova,' of the 8th, which is edited by a brother of one of the editors of the 'Tribuna,' in which it stated 'that last night a chasque had arrived, who brought the news that the Chacho had invaded San Juan at the head of one thousand men; that he had already fought with the two companies of the 6th of line, and that the Chacho had remained master of the field.' What to make out of such news, we are really at a loss to say.

We exposed a small sample of Santiago cotton on the Bolsa to-day; it was in very poor condition, and seemed to have been left too long unpicked. Mr. Arning, of the firm of Alsen, Arning and Hintz, bought the lot, which is about 200lb, at one paper dollar per pound. In the send, and ships it, per Kepler, to Germany.
